From second anniversary to fifth anniversary	10 hours per month
From fifth anniversary to tenth anniversary	16 hours per month
After tenth anniversary	20 hours per month

Section 2. Paid time off shall be compensated at the hourly wage rate currently being paid to the employee. Except when an employee sells back hours or terminates, hours compensated for paid time off shall be used to calculate whether the employee has worked sufficient hours to be eligible for contributions to the Health & Welfare Fund. The Employer shall make appropriate contributions to the pension plans for any hours compensated for paid time off.

Section 3. An employee may utilize paid time off for purposes of personal illness, disability or for health matters requiring personal medical attention as needed. However, when an employee takes three (3) or more consecutive days off for personal health reasons, the Employer may demand verification of the need from a health care provider.

Where two or more employees seek to schedule vacation during the same time, the Employer shall honor requests made on or before November 1, based on the employee's length of service. Otherwise, an employee may request to schedule vacation time, but should attempt to do so at least three (3) months in advance. The Employer may deny a request to schedule vacation time where granting the request would burden the Employer because of previously scheduled vacations for other employees or specific operational needs. An employee may not schedule more than ten (10) consecutive work days off at any time absent Employer approval.

Section 6. An Employee may accumulate paid time off up to 480 hours.

Section 7. Each contract year, an Employee may "sell back" up to 40 hours of accumulated paid time off. rights or privileges of seniority. During an approved leave, an employee may use one half (1/2) of accumulated earned paid time off, but not in excess of one hundred sixty (160) hours, during such absences. Hours paid for a leave shall not be used to calculate whether the employee is eligible for a contribution to the Health & Welfare Fund, but shall include appropriate contributions to the pension plans.

Section 2. If an employee is selected to perform work for the Office and Professional Employees International Union, Local No. 30, including conventions and conferences, at the employer's option, the employee may be granted reasonable time off if consistent with the needs of the Employer. Leave shall be without pay or fringe benefit contributions, unless an employee elects to use paid time off. An employee may use one half (1/2) of accumulated earned paid time off, but not in excess of one hundred sixty (160) hours, during such absences. Hours paid for a leave shall not be used to calculate whether the employee is eligible for a contribution to the Health & Welfare Fund, but shall include appropriate contributions to the pension plans.

Section 3. BEREAVEMENT LEAVE - In the case of death in the immediate family, an employee shall be granted a leave-of-absence of three (3) working days, with pay if earned paid time off is available, in State, and five (5) working days with pay if earned paid time off is available, out-of-State. Employees opting to take advantage of any portion of the maternity leave clause will suffer no loss of seniority. An employee may use one half (1/2) of accumulated earned paid time off, but not in excess of one hundred sixty (160) hours, during maternity leave up to 160 hours. Hours paid for a leave shall not be used to calculate whether the employee is eligible for a contribution to the Health & Welfare Fund, but shall include appropriate contributions to the pension plans.

Where in the Employer's good faith discretion, two or more employees are deemed equal, the Employer shall layoff the employee with the least seniority.

Section 2. Recalls will be made in the reverse order of layoff provided that an employee still retains seniority rights and in the Employer's good faith discretion the employee is capable of performing necessary duties subsequent to recall.
