THIS AGREEMENT, entered into by INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS, LOCAL 111, AFL-CIO, hereinafter referred to as the “Employer” and OFFICE AND PROFESSIONAL EMPLOYEES INTERNATIONAL UNION, LOCAL 30, AFL-CIO, hereinafter referred to as the “Union”.

ARTICLE 1 – RECOGNITION

- 1.1 The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole collective bargaining agent for all employees employed in office, clerical or technical capacities provided that all regularly elected officers of the Employer and full-time appointed employees are exempt from the unit if the combined work they perform is not a sufficient amount to require the services of a full-time employee as further provided in this Agreement.
- 1.2 There shall be no reduction in force in the existing bargaining unit unless the Employer satisfactorily proves the necessity for such reduction.
- 1.3 The Union recognizes that the Employer has conditions which will affect only its operation and, this clause is not intended to broaden present and existing work assignments or jurisdictional lines, or to create the necessity of hiring additional employees.

ARTICLE 2 – UNION SECURITY

- 2.1 Present employees covered by this Agreement, and new employees hired after the date hereof, shall, as a condition of employment, become members of the Union between the thirtieth and thirty-fifth day following the date of this Agreement, or the date of employment, whichever is later, and shall remain members in good standing of the Union during the term of this Agreement. “Good standing” for the purpose of this paragraph is interpreted to mean the payment or tendering of initiation fees and periodic Union dues. The Employer will notify Local 30’s office of any openings and will give first consideration to any qualified Union members.
- 2.2 Employees may have a Union representative present at meetings concerning disciplinary action, discharge, or layoffs provided a Union steward or representative is available within a reasonable period of time. This provision does not diminish nor preclude the Employer’s right to take just and necessary action in the above instances.

ARTICLE 3 – HOURS OF EMPLOYMENT

- 3.1 Eight (8) consecutive hours between the hours of 7:00 A.M. and 6:00 P.M., exclusive of a lunch period of either one half (1/2) hour or one (1) hour (at the employee’s choice, with a thirty (30) day notice to the Employer) at the approximate mid-point of the employee’s shift shall constitute a day’s work.

Forty (40) hours, Monday through Friday inclusive, shall constitute a weeks work. A regular full-time employee shall be guaranteed eight (8) hours of work each day of the established work week. The Employer may change start times on an individual basis as business needs arise. Any changes shall be made with as much prior notice as possible to allow the employees to adjust their personal schedules.

- 3.2 When mutually agreed to between the Union and the Employer, the Employer may schedule a four (4) day work week. Ten (10) consecutive hours between the hours of 7:00 A.M. and 6:00 P.M., exclusive of lunch period, shall constitute a day's work. Forty (40) hours, on any four (4) days, Monday through Friday shall constitute a week's work. When employees are working a four (4) day workweek, a regular full-time Employee shall be guaranteed ten (10) hours of work on four (4) days of the established work week.
- 3.3 The Employer shall provide within the regular working hours a rest period of fifteen (15) minutes within each three and one-half (3 ½) hour period of work, such rest period to be arranged at an approximate mid-point within the period or at a time mutually convenient to the Employer and the Union employee. Where working shifts comprise a morning and afternoon work period, these rest periods will usually be mid-morning and mid-afternoon breaks.
- 3.4 Employees shall have the right to leave their offices for the fifteen (15) minute break.

ARTICLE 4 – OVERTIME

- 4.1 All work performed over eight (8) hours in any one day, or over ten (10) hours in any one day of a four (4) day work week, shall be considered overtime and paid for at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) the employee's base hourly rate of pay. For overtime calculation purposes, overtime will be calculated by the tenth of an hour. Example 1/10 of an hour = 6 minutes, 5/10 = 30 minutes. All work performed on Sunday shall be considered overtime and paid for at the rate of double (2) the employee's base rate of pay. Any employee required to remain more than two hours beyond their regular quitting time shall be provided the sum of $12.50 for the purpose of purchasing a meal. In the event the employee is required to remain in excess of four (4) hours, such employee will be afforded a thirty-minute period with pay during which to eat the meal.
- 4.2 An employee called to work or called back to work, shall receive a minimum of four (4) hours work or pay, therefore, at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) the employee's base hourly rate of pay.
- 4.3 When employing more than one employee, overtime shall be distributed as equally as practicable among employees qualified to perform the work.

ARTICLE 5 – HOLIDAYS

- 5.1 The following holidays shall be observed with no reduction in salary: New Years Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, the last workday before Christmas Day, Christmas Day, the last workday before New Year’s Day, Employee’s birthday, and such other holidays as are observed by fifty percent or more of the members of the Local Union acting as the Employer under this Agreement. Should any of the above holidays fall on Sunday, the following Monday shall be considered the holiday. In the event any of the holidays fall on Saturday, they shall be celebrated on the preceding Friday unless otherwise mutually agreed. For employees working on a four (4) day work week, a holiday falling on the employees scheduled day off, shall be observed on their next scheduled work day.

- 5.2 Any employee, who is required to work on any of the aforementioned holidays, will be compensated for hours worked at double (2) their hourly rate of pay in addition to the compensation which the employee shall receive for an un-worked holiday.

ARTICLE 6 – VACATIONS

- 6.1 Each employee shall receive vacation pay each year according to the following schedule of consecutive years of service:

	Hours of paid vacation per year
After one (1) year:	80 hours
After three (3) years:	120 hours
After eleven (11) years:	160 hours

An employee may elect to carry over a maximum of forty (40) hours earned vacation time from anniversary year to anniversary year. Employees shall be allowed to take vacation in increments of four (4) hours. Employees shall receive a 100% payout of their unused but accrued vacation time on their anniversary if their carry over bank is full.

If the employee is hired before the first of the month, then their sick leave will be prorated based on the number of days they worked in the partial month. Unused sick leave shall be accumulated to a maximum of seven hundred twenty (720) hours. Once an employee accumulates the maximum number of hours, they will continue to earn and be able to use sick leave during the following year. Any hours not used during the year will be added to the accumulated hours on their anniversary date, until they have reached the maximum hours.

Upon leaving the service of the Employer, an employee shall receive 50% of all sick leave that has been rolled over or remains unused. The Employer may require that the employee obtain a doctor's certificate or other proof of illness whenever it appears justified. This article will not conflict with Colorado workplace public health laws, SB 20-205 (paid leave) and HB 20-1415 (whistleblowing and personal protective equipment).

When such leave of absence is granted by the Employer, it shall not impair the employee's seniority as set out in Article 13 hereof. The Union shall be notified in writing by the Employer when such leave of absence or extension is granted to any employee covered by this Agreement. An employee who misrepresents or overstays the leave of absence will lose rights to re-employment, unless otherwise agreed to by the Employer.
