- 1.1 The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole collective bargaining agent for all employees employed in the IBEW Local 12 Business Office in receptionist, clerical, bookkeeping and accounting positions.
- 1.2 There shall be no reduction in force in the existing bargaining unit unless the Employer satisfactorily proves to the Union the necessity for such reduction. There shall be no outsourcing or replacement of current employees with non-bargaining unit employees.

ARTICLE 2 – UNION SECURITY

- 2.1 Present employees covered by this Agreement, and new employees hired after the date hereof, shall, as a condition of employment, become members of the Union between the thirtieth and thirty-fifth day following the date of this Agreement, or the date of employment, whichever is later, and shall remain members in good standing of the Union during the term of this Agreement. "Good standing" for the purpose of this paragraph is interpreted to mean the payment or tendering of initiation fees and periodic Union dues. The Employer will notify Local 30's office of any openings and will give first consideration to any qualified Union members.
- 2.2 Employees may have a Union representative present at meetings concerning disciplinary action, discharge, or layoffs provided a Union steward or representative is available within a reasonable period of time. This provision does not diminish nor preclude the Employer's right to take just and necessary action in the above instances.

ARTICLE 3 – HOURS OF EMPLOYMENT

- 3.1 Eight (8) consecutive hours between the hours of 8:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M., exclusive of lunch period shall constitute a day's work. Forty (40) hours, Monday through Friday inclusive, shall constitute a weeks work. A regular full-time employee shall be guaranteed eight (8) hours of work each day of the established work week.
- 3.2 The Employer shall provide within the regular working hours a rest period of fifteen (15) minutes within each three and one-half (3 ½) hour period of work, such rest period to be arranged at an approximate mid-point within the period or at a time mutually convenient to the Employer and the Union employee. Where working shifts comprise a morning and afternoon work period, these rest periods will usually be mid-morning and mid-afternoon breaks.

- 3.3 Employees shall have the right to leave their offices for the fifteen (15) minute break.

ARTICLE 4 – OVERTIME

- 4.1 All work performed over eight (8) hours in any one day, or over forty (40) hours in one work week, shall be considered overtime and paid for at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) the employee's base hourly rate of pay. For overtime calculation purposes, overtime will be calculated by the tenth of an hour. Example 1/10 of an hour = 6 minutes, 5/10 = 30 minutes. All work performed on Sunday shall be considered overtime and paid for at the rate of double (2) the employee's base rate of pay. Any employee required to remain more than two hours beyond their regular quitting time shall be provided the sum of $12.50 for the purpose of purchasing a meal. In the event the employee is required to remain in excess of four (4) hours, such employee will be afforded a thirty-minute period with pay during which to eat the meal.
- 4.2 An employee called to work or called back to work, shall receive a minimum of four (4) hours work or pay, therefore, at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) the employee's base hourly rate of pay.

In the event any of the holidays fall on Saturday, they shall be celebrated on the preceding Friday unless otherwise mutually agreed
- 5.2 Any employee, who is required to work on any of the aforementioned holidays, will be compensated for hours worked at double (2) their hourly rate of pay in addition to the compensation which the employee shall receive for an un-worked holiday.

Such pay shall be prorated at the rate of one-twelfth (1/12) of annual vacation to which the employee is entitled for each full month of service up to the time of termination. However, in the event an employee is terminated before the employee has completed one (1) year of service, the employee shall receive vacation pay at the rate of one (1) day's pay per month for each month of service over three (3) months.
- 6.3 Employees shall be given first choice by seniority in selecting the time of their vacations. Vacations will then be taken after Employer approval.

- 20.5 The Employer shall contribute to the NEBF Pension Fund on behalf of each full-time eligible employee for each hour paid on a non-bargaining participant basis. Such contribution amount shall be set by the Fund.
- 20.6 Regularly scheduled part-time employees who work eighty (80) or more hours per month for three (3) consecutive months shall be covered by the provisions of this Article through a Memorandum of Agreement between the Employer, the employee and the Union. This shall not apply to extra help covering for vacation periods or sick leave.

ARTICLE 21 – MATERNITY LEAVE

- 21.1 The Employer will establish reasonable rules to govern maternity leave in accordance with Title VII of the Civil Rights Act. Such rules shall be subject to the Grievance and Arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 22 – DISCIPLINE PROCEDURE

- 22.1 In the administration of this Article, a basic principle shall be that discipline should be corrective in nature, rather than punitive. No employee may be disciplined or discharged except for just cause such as, but not limited to, insubordination, pilferage, intoxication (drugs or alcohol), incompetence, failure to perform work as requested, or failure to observe safety rules and regulations.

Any such discipline or discharge shall be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure provided for in this Agreement, which could result in reinstatement and restitution, including back pay.

Progressive disciplinary procedures

- a. Managers shall make every attempt to issue Notices of Disciplinary Action within 30 calendar days of the supervisor's knowledge of the infraction.
- b. Exceptions will include such examples as a prolonged investigation, employee or supervisor unavailability.
- c. Managers shall notify the Union in all cases where exceptions are anticipated.

Step One:

Verbal Warning with written notation signed by employer and employee. Copies of the notation are to be placed in the employee's personnel file, given to the employee, and sent to the Union. The notation shall include:

1. Date of the offense;
2. Name of the employee;
3. Nature of the offense;
4. Action required to correct the offense; and
5. Allowance of adequate time to correct the offense depending on its nature.

Step Two:

Written Warning with written notification signed by employer and employee. Copies of written warnings are to be placed in employee's personnel file, given to the employee, and sent to the Union. The notation shall include:

1. Date of the offense;
2. Name of employee;
3. Nature of the offense
4. Action required to correct the offense; and
5. Allowance of adequate time to correct the offense depending on the nature.

Step Three:

Final Written Warning if the offense is not corrected within the time allowed in Section 5 of the Step Two above, and third final written warning will be given. Copies of the third written warning are to be placed in the employee's personnel file, given to the employee, and sent to the Union. This notice shall include:

1. Date of the subsequent offense that was the same as the offense in Step Two;
2. Name of the employee;
3. Date of the first written warning given in Step Two;
4. Nature of the offense, and an explanation of why it was not corrected in Step Two;
5. A determination as to whether additional training is necessary, or is not required because the correction of the offense is within the control of the employee.
6. The amount of additional time allowed for correcting the offense depends on its nature.
7. Possible maximum one week suspension without pay.

Step Four:

Termination If the additional training and/or the additional time allowed to correct the offense as provided in Step Three does not remedy the problem, the employee will be terminated with a written letter.

If the same offense occurs after 12 months from the conclusion of the corrective action contemplated in Step Three, the progressive disciplinary process will begin again with Step One.

The employer must maintain certain personnel records for matters related to litigation and otherwise. However, future violations of the same offense occurring greater than 12 months from the conclusion of the corrective action contemplated in Step Three will not be considered when evaluating the employee's compliance with Steps One and Two.

- 22.2 Nothing in this article is intended to preclude an employee from having a Union Steward or Representative present at a disciplinary interview.

ARTICLE 23 – GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION

- 23.1 Definition: A grievance within the meaning of this Agreement shall be any difference of opinion, controversy, or dispute arising between the parties hereto relating to any matter of wages, hours and working conditions, or any dispute between the parties involving interpretation or application of any provision of this Agreement.

The parties to this Agreement agree to make a good faith effort to resolve disputes expeditiously.

All grievances shall be handled in the following manner:

- A. STEP ONE: A grievance may be filed no later than ten (10) working days after the grievance first becomes known, or should have become known. The grievance must be presented by the Union or the aggrieved employee to the proper supervisor involved and the parties should meet within five (5) working days in an effort to resolve said grievance. In the event that a physical meeting is to take place, said meeting must be mutually agreed upon as to the day, time and location. If the grievance is not resolved with the supervisor within one (1) working day, the grievance shall be reduced to writing, citing the Article and Section of this Agreement which has been allegedly violated.
- B. STEP TWO: If the grievance is not settled in Step 1, the written grievance may, no later than five (5) working days after the time limitations set forth above for Step 1, be referred by the Union to the Employer for discussion and resolution by the Employer. If the grievance is not resolved at this Step of the grievance and Arbitration Procedure within five (5) working days the grievance will be moved to Step Three, arbitration. If the grievance is rejected at this Step of the Grievance and Arbitration Procedure, the Employer will state the reasons for such rejection in writing to the Union.

- C. STEP THREE: If the grievance is not settled at Step 2, the Union may request an arbitrator within fifteen (15) working days immediately following the Step 2 decision, by delivering a written notice to the Employer.

Within five (5) working days after receipt of notice of intent to arbitrate, the Union will request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to furnish a list of five arbitrators from which the arbitrator shall be selected. Such selection shall be accomplished within five (5) working days by the Employer and the Union alternately striking one (1) name from the list, in turn, until only one (1) name remains.

The one striking first will be decided with the flip of a coin.

- 23.2 The cost of the arbitrator, and the cost of necessary expenses required to pay for facilities for hearing of the cases shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union.
- 23.3 The decision of the arbitrator shall be submitted in writing and shall be final and binding on all parties.
- 23.4 The parties to any stage of the Grievance Procedure or the arbitrator cannot have the authority to modify or amend, alter, add to, or subtract from, any provision of this Agreement.
- 23.5 The Grievance shall be considered null and void if not filed and processed by the Union or the employee represented by the Union, in accordance with the time limitations set forth above, unless the parties involved agree to extend said time limitations.
- 23.6 The arbitrator shall not have the authority to excuse a failure by the Union, or the aggrieved employee to comply with time limitations set forth above, regardless of the reasons given for such failure.

ARTICLE 23 – MILEAGE

- 23.1 Employees may be required to use their personal vehicle when a need is determined by the Employer. Such required use shall not exceed twenty five (25) miles per week. For such use, the Employer agrees to pay the maximum allowable I.R.S. rate per mile for all such miles plus any appropriate parking fees. The Employer shall not be responsible for any other costs incurred for such use, including any and all motor vehicle violations such as parking tickets or any moving violations of any kind.

ARTICLE 24 – UNION LABEL

- 24.1 The OPEIU Logo is the exclusive property of Office and Professional Employees International Union, and may be used only by members of OPEIU on documents which are produced and/or processed by members of OPEIU.

ARTICLE 26 – QUALITY OF WORK LIFE

- 26.1 Recognizing the desirability of mutual efforts to improve the work life of the employees and enhance the effectiveness of the organization, the Employer and the Union express their mutual belief that by encouraging greater employee participation, work can be made more satisfying and organizational performance and service quality can be improved. Therefore, the parties agree to continue cooperation in developing a spirit of mutual trust and respect by establishing a process whereby employees meet periodically with management for the purpose of coordinating efforts to improve quality of work life.

ARTICLE 27 – CHECK-OFF

The Employer shall deduct from the wages of any employee who submits a voluntary authorization card, an amount designated by such employee for OPEIU's "J.B. Moss Voice of the Electorate" (VOTE) fund. Such deductions shall be made on the same date that employees receive their regular paychecks.

- 27.2 Any change in the rate of dues and/or initiation fees levied by the Union will be put into effect the first month following written notice from the Union. Deductions shall be in such amounts as are designated to the Employer in writing by the Union.

- 27.3 The Union shall provide deduction assignments to the Employer for each employee, prior to such deductions.

- 27.4 The Union shall indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any and all claims, demands, suits or other forms of liability, including but not limited to, and expenses associated with any arbitration that shall arise out of, or by reason of the compliance of the Employer with this Article.
