AGREEMENT

This collective bargaining agreement (“Agreement”), entered into by Plumbers and Pipefitters Local 192, hereinafter referred to as the “Employer,” and Office and Professional Employees International Union, Local 30, AFL-CIO, hereinafter referred to as the “Union.”

ARTICLE 1 – RECOGNITION

- 1.1 The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole collective bargaining agent for all employees employed in office, clerical or technical capacities provided that all regularly elected officers of the Employer and full-time appointed employees are exempt from the unit if the combined work they perform is not a sufficient amount to require the services of a full time employee as further provided in this Agreement.
- 1.2 All employees now in the bargaining unit shall not be terminated unless the Employer satisfactorily proves the economic necessity or other just cause for the termination
- 1.3 The Union recognizes that each Employer has conditions which will affect only his operation; and, this clause is not intended to broaden present and existing work assignments or jurisdictional lines or to create the necessity of hiring additional employees.

ARTICLE 2 – UNION SECURITY

- 2.1 Present employees covered by this Agreement, and new employees hired after the date hereof, shall, as a condition of employment, become members of the Union between the thirtieth and thirty-fifth day following the date of this Agreement, or the date of employment, whichever is later, and shall remain members in good standing of the Union during the term of this Agreement. “Good Standing” for the purpose of this paragraph is interpreted to mean the payment or tendering of initiation fees and periodic Union dues. The Employer will notify Local 30’s office of any openings and will give first consideration to any qualified Union members.

This article shall become effective at and upon passage of the repeal of the Right-to-Work Law, Section 27.248-1, Wyoming Statutes.

ARTICLE 3 – HOURS OF EMPLOYMENT

- 3.1 Eight (8) consecutive hours between the hours of 8:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M., exclusive of lunch period, shall constitute a day’s work. Forty (40) hours, Monday through Friday inclusive, shall constitute a week’s work. A regular full-time employee shall be guaranteed eight (8) hours of work each day of the established work week unless economic circumstances require a reduction of hours or a layoff. The Employer may schedule a four (4) day work week, adjusting hours of work and/or pay to meet the forty (40) hour guarantee, and further shall meet with the Union to negotiate other changes as may be required to meet the needs of the Employer if a four (4) day work week is scheduled. In the event of an economic downturn, the Employer may contact the Union to discuss a temporary reduction in the guaranteed hours for the employees rather than a layoff.

- 3.2 The Employer agrees not to change the hour at which the working day is scheduled to begin unless such change is to continue for a period of at least two (2) weeks, except by mutual consent of the Employer and the employee.
- 3.3 The Employer shall provide within the regular working hours a rest period of fifteen (15) minutes within each four (4) hour period of work, such rest period to be arranged at an approximate midpoint within the period or at a time mutually convenient to the Employer and the employee. Where working shifts comprise a morning and afternoon work period, these rest periods will usually be mid-morning and mid-afternoon breaks.
- 3.4 When agreed to between the Employer and the employee, the hours of work may be changed from the normal 8:00 A.M. through 5:00 P.M. This is so that, if the workload allows, time taken to attend to personal issues outside the office can be made up during other hours including lunch periods and after 5:00 P.M.

ARTICLE 4 – OVERTIME

- 4.1 For all work performed in excess of eight (8) hours a day on a five (5) day work week, or in excess of ten (10) hours a day on a four (4) day work week, or forty (40) hours a week, employees shall receive time and one-half (1½x) their base hourly rate of pay. All work performed on Sundays or on the holidays recognized in this Agreement will be paid at double (2x) their base hourly rate of pay.

When mutually agreed to by the Employer and the employee (due to financial circumstances) overtime hours may be compensated as “compensation time” to be used whenever mutually agreed between the Employer and the employee. If mutual agreement cannot be made, overtime will be paid. Upon termination of employment, all unused “compensation time” will be paid.

- 4.2 An employee called to work on a weekend or holiday, or called back to work after having left work for the day, shall receive a minimum of “four (4) hours” work or pay therefore at the rate of double (2x) the employee’s base hourly rate of pay.
- 4.3 In offices employing more than one employee, overtime shall be distributed as equally as practicable among employees qualified to perform the work.
- 4.4 Overtime shall be permitted by mutual consent. Such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The Employer agrees not to discharge or discriminate against an employee who has a legitimate excuse for refusing to work overtime.

Should any of the above fall on Sunday, the day observed by the Nation shall be considered the Holiday. In the event any of the holidays fall on Saturday, they shall be celebrated on the preceding Friday, unless otherwise mutually agreed.

5.3 Any employee who is required to work on any of the aforementioned Holidays will be compensated for hours worked at double (2x) their hourly rate of pay, in addition to the compensation which the employee shall receive for an unworked holiday.

When such a leave of absence is granted by the Employer it shall not impair the employee's seniority as set forth in Article 10 hereof.
